

Local broadcast radio does not provide frequent enough traffic and weather updates. The dedicated XM stations do. Real time updates allow motorists to make quick decisions on alternative routes and help reduce / balance traffic congestion. Do not eliminate this service..... unless you want to spend billions$$$ expanding the lanes of our highways.